200	Who is Gram and how is she a force that shapes Jolly?	Why did Jolly get fired?	What the first Steam Class is about and why does LaVaughn’s answer embarrass Jolly.	Find two textual examples that describe the filth of Jolly’s apartment.	What does it mean to make a “bad bed”? And how does it relate to LaVaughn’s mother’s decision to let her take the baby sitting job?
300	Who is killed on a basketball court? Why is his death surprising?	How did Jolly get pregnant? Use textual support.	What does college mean to LaVaughn?	What does Jolly learn in the Parent Skill classes?	Explain the reason why Jolly says, “Nobody told me,” and connect it to a lesson that the reader learns about personal responsibility.
400	Who is a gray-haired woman who thinks others need to take hold? Use two different adjectives and examples to describe her.	Explain Jilly’s emergency. How is Jolly able to help her daughter? What does this mean about Jolly’s ability to parent her children?	Explain why Jolly feels like an astronaut.	What are the conditions that LaVaughn’s mother sets for her working for Jolly? What does she hope LaVaughn will learn from this experience?	What does it mean to “Get up on the 1” and do things “all the way”? Who do these sayings come from? What do they teach?

500	Who thinks the towel will fix a bloody face? Use this example to list two different adjectives and matching evidence to describe him.	Who did Jolly write a letter to and why? Explain what the letter shows about Jolly and her attitude about welfare and charity.	Identify two “parent-like” lessons LaVaughn teaches Jeremy in his apartment and explain why she teaches them.	In your own words, explain what Jeremy does on the bus ride to the shoe store? Identify the object that is the symbol and explain what it represents.	Explain the story of the blind woman and the orange. Why does Jolly tell the story? What does she want LaVaughn to understand and to stop doing?
600	Who has a shame style and puts a shimmy with it? Explain what this dance shows about the character.	Where did Jolly live before she had kids?	Explain why the “gutter” is a symbolic quote and what it represents about Jolly. Why is she in the gutter? What is she missing?	Use two textual examples to show that Jolly starts to address some of her failings or shortcomings. What is proof of her change?	Explain the symbol of the lemon seeds and what they represent to Jeremy. What do they need to grow?
700	Who needs glasses? Explain how this affects him. What does it prevent him from doing?	What does LaVaughn have to decide about babysitting for Jolly when Jolly says she can’t pay her? What does LaVaughn’s decision show about her?	Are Jolly and Lavaughn friends at the end? Why or why not?	What does LaVaughn have to do to become an official Home Care Helper for Jolly?	Use LaVaughn’s decision to babysit for free to craft a thematic statement about the importance or duty of helping others.
